

ARTICLE APPEARED
ON PAGE A-2

PARADE MAGAZINE
WASHINGTON POST
27 FEBRUARY 1983

Q After Watergate, wasn't Richard Nixon secretly committed to a mental institution run by Quakers and replaced by the CIA with a Hollywood double? Isn't this the real reason why his wife, Pat, refuses all interviews—because she is afraid reporters will ask about the look-alike she is living with, and she will have to tell?—M.P., New Brighton, Minn.

A Richard Nixon was never committed to a mental institution. He and Mrs. Nixon are alive and well at their residence in Saddle River, N.J. Pat Nixon grants no interviews because she prefers privacy.